As part of the objectives to strengthen the Shariah-compliance practices among Islamic financial institutions (IFI), Bank Negara Malaysia (the Bank) is developing a Shariah-based regulatory policy with the objective to provide a comprehensive guidance to the Islamic financial industry with respect to end-to-end compliance with Shariah. This Shariah-based regulatory policy consists of two components, Shariah and operational requirements. The Shariah requirements highlight the salient features and essential conditions of specific Shariah contracts to facilitate sound understanding of a particular contract by the IFI. The operational requirements set out the expectations with respect to the oversight function, structuring, risk management, reporting and disclosure as well as consumer and market conduct.

This concept paper (CP) provides both the Shariah and operational requirements for istisna` contract. The Bank invites written feedback and comments only on the operational requirements of istisna` contract under Part C. The Shariah requirements in Part B serves as reference to facilitate IFI in providing feedback and comments on operational aspects of istisna` in line with the Shariah requirements. The feedback must be supported with clear rationale, accompanying evidence or illustration, as appropriate to facilitate effective review of the standard.

Additional instruction for IFI

In addition to providing general feedback, IFI are required to respond to the specific questions set out throughout this CP.

PART A OVERVIEW

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Compliance with the requirements of a specific Shariah contract is a prerequisite in ensuring the legitimacy of the financial transaction entered into between the Islamic financial institution (IFI) and its customers. Failure to meet the requirements may render such financial transaction invalid and this, may lead to adverse impact on the IFI's safety and soundness. In this regard, the Bank embarks on the development of a Shariah contract-based regulatory policy to ensure end-to-end compliance with Shariah and therefore, enhance the integrity and sustainability of the IFI.
- 1.2 The Shariah contract-based regulatory policy consists of two components, namely Part B (Shariah requirements) and Part C (Operational requirements). The Shariah component provides clear stipulation of Shariah rulings with respect to the salient features and essential conditions of a specific Shariah contract, to facilitate sound understanding and cohesive application among the IFI. The operational component outlines regulatory expectations for good governance, robust documentations, effective risk management, fair and transparent market practices. These operational requirements aim to complement and support effective application of Shariah contract.
- 1.3 Istisna` is a type of sale contract where a subject matter is transacted before it comes into existence. Hence, it is important that the selling price and the specification of the subject matter be determined and agreed by contracting parties upon entering into istisna` contract.
- 1.4 In the context of Islamic financial transaction, an IFI may enter into istisna` contract with a customer who requires an asset that needs to be constructed or manufactured based on a given specification. As a seller, the IFI undertake to construct or manufacture the asset and deliver the completed asset to the customer on the agreed delivery date. The customer (purchaser) may pay the selling price on deferred basis, either in lump sum or instalments basis.

- 1.5 Typically, the IFI is expected to enter into an arrangement with a competent and reputable contractor to undertake the construction or manufacturing work. Shariah emphasises that the obligation to deliver the completed istisna` asset must remain with the seller, regardless of whether the seller directly undertake the istisna` work or hiring another party to complete the work.

APPENDICES

Appendix 1: Legitimacy of Istisna`

1. The legitimacy of istisna` is derived from the Quran and founded on the Sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him), and the consensus of Muslim jurists (Ijma`).

The Quran

2. The following verses of the Quran imply the general permissibility of sales contract including istisna` contract:

i. وَأَحَلَّ اللَّهُ الْبَيْعَ وَحَرَّمَ الرِّبَا

“...whereas Allah SWT has permitted trading and forbidden usury...” (Surah al-Baqarah, verse 275).

ii. يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَوْفُوا بِالْعُقُودِ

“O you who believe! fulfil (all) obligations...” (Surah al-Maidah, verse 1).

The Sunnah of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him)

3. The following hadiths imply the permissibility of istisna` contract:

i. عن عبيد الله عن نافع عن ابن عمر، قال: إن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم

اصطنع خاتما من ذهب، فكان يجعل فسه في باطن كفه إذا لبسه، فصنع الناس، ثم

إنه جلس على المنبر فنزعه، وقال: إني كنت ألبس هذا الخاتم وأجعل فسه من

داخل فرمى به، ثم قال: والله لا ألبسه أبداً، فنبذ الناس خواتيمهم.

Ibn Umar reported that the Prophet (peace be upon him) had a golden ring made for himself, and when he wore it he used to turn its stone toward the palm of his hand. So the people too had gold made for themselves. The Prophet (peace be upon him) then ascended the pulpit, removed the ring, and he said, "I had it made for me, but now I will never wear it again." He threw it away, and then the people threw away their rings too." (Sahih Bukhari and Muslim)

.ii عن سهل رضي الله عنه أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم أرسل إلى امرأة من المهاجرين

وكان لها غلام نجار، قال لها: مري عبدك، فليعمل لنا أعواد المنبر، فأمرت عبدها

فذهب فقطع من الطرفاء فصنع له منبراً، فلما قضاها أرسلت إلى النبي صلى الله

عليه وسلم إنه قد قضاها، قال صلى الله عليه وسلم: أرسلني به إلي ف جاءوا به،

فاحتمله النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فوضعه حيث ترون.

Sahl reported that the Prophet (peace be upon him) sent for a woman from the emigrants who had a slave who was a carpenter. The Prophet (peace be upon him) told her, "Order your slave to prepare wood (pieces) for a pulpit." So she ordered her slave, who went and cut wood from a tamarisk tree and prepared a pulpit for the Prophet (peace be upon him). When he finished the pulpit, the woman informed the Prophet (peace be upon him) that it had been finished. The Prophet (peace be upon him) asked her to send that pulpit to him so they brought it. Sahl said, "The Prophet lifted it and placed it at the place in which you see it now." (Sahih al-Bukhari)
